October 7, 2020 - Are you with us?

The Royal’s Leaders for Mental Health Breakfast convenes over 1,000 community and business leaders to raise both money and awareness for mental health care and research.

The Royal needs you to get involved.

You’ve read the headlines - Canadians are bracing for a mental health crisis triggered by COVID-19.

Table Captain Duties

- Sign up for the 2020 team and recruit at least seven interested and charitable people to attend the virtual Leaders for Mental Health Breakfast on October 7.
- Participate in a virtual Captains’ Training Camp on August 26 at 12 noon.
- Connect with your guests the day before the event to ensure they’re registered for the live stream. Let them know you will follow-up after the virtual breakfast presentation.
- Ask your guests to consider a donation of $1,000 to The Royal.
- Follow up with your guests after the breakfast via a group video chat or individual phone calls to thank them for their support.
